I. John Winans -

(a) See Savage: General Dict. IV. p. 614
"John Winus "(Sic)" "New Haven"
"m. 1664 Susanna Melyen,
d. of a Dutchman, and was perhaps himself a Dutchman."
"Had John b (bp?) 1 July 1665, Susanna b. 9 Feb. 1667."
(No doubt from a New Haven record).

(b) N. Y. Dutch Ch. Records: - baptism
1671-28-March: John Wynandzen
and W. Susanna Melyn
Elizabeth

1672-2 Apr: John Wynantzen, etc.
Samuel -

1674 - 3 Oct: John Wynants, etc.
Susanna
Johannes

(Evidently the John born in N. H. had died - after Samuel's birth; the next child was then named John - fr. the father. Susanna is the N. Haven Susanna. John's will 14 - Feb. 1687/8 shows her married to (Hendrik) Baker. Possibly there was question of the validity of a N. Haven baptism.

(c) John's will, 1688, names his living children. N.J. Arch XXI. p. 217. They are in order of birth - sons and dr's separately - exc. marr. d'r last.

Dec. 1904 - was a "Wm." born just after will Whether or not John was the first comer, I am not certain (Dec. '04). If so, he came young. Possibly a father perished - in the early settling - Indians, etc. - thus passed from discovery. The name "Wynant" was used in Holland (and elsewhere) as a given name. "Wynants" is its genitive = "sons of" - It is possible that a sire is obscured through the Dutch custom of using first name patronymics; - as Jan Pieterse (Kovvenhooven), - and then Gerrit Jon-sen( ) etc.

o'k by 2nd wife 1794

Coat of arms on Sam^{l} - S^{2}'s will shows Winans already a family name in Holland.

When the Indian troubles of 1655 dispersed the colony on Staten Island, Cornelius Melyn (obnoxious to Gov. Stuyvesant and the ruling party in New Amsterdam) - went to New Haven among the English; and with him doubtless others closely associated with him.

Cornelius, and his son Jacob, take Oath of Alleg'ce there in 1857.

If John Winans was there, he was under age, probably.

prob. 1663. ± When Cornelius died is not known; before 1674 - when he is referred to as deceased in a petition by his children with regard to land claims on St. Isl. I think he was dead before 1665, - the New Haven migration to Elizabeth town, N.J., and possibly before Susannah's marriage to John Winans.

For account of this settlement, see Hatfield: "History of Eliz'town" 1868 (has errors of detail - from imperfect knowledge then). John Winans is one of the "30" Associates" - Oath Feb. 9, 1665/6.
His bro-i-law, Jacob Melyn, is another.
His " " " , Mathys Hetfield is another.
(M. Marian Melyn). and Humphry (Spinning - or Spinntug)? another, - married a sister of Jacob M's wife.
These all have house and land allotments in contiguity. South side of E. T. Creek. And there the descendants lived for several generations.
See Meyer's Map of Elizabeth - as it was ± 1776 - plots and names. The site there is that shown me by my father (b 1796) in ± 1862 as old homestead place of first-comer.

For John Winans further - see Hatfield, pp. 101-2, and index. And index to N. J. Arch. vols - Will in XXI. 217 & XXIII.

He was a weaver: prominent as a church supporter, etc. He died in Dec. 1694; on the 24th his sons-i-law, Eb'n Lyon and Hend'r Baker file caveat against a first inventory.

(as too small. Their wives as dr's by will had int. in personalty only.)

Clerk's error

His name in Oath list - (above) is written "John Kayne's Kaynes" (pron'd probably "Ky-ness". Influence of English association was to simplify and anglicize names.)

The very first generation - of settlers at Eliz'n - as a rule - have no tombstones; the second does. John - and others - may have been buried in floor of church (wh. was done sometimes, it is known), or just behind the church, - which later was built over their graves. The old building was burned by British in 1780.

Melyns. For Cornelius Melyn - see J. H. Innes: "New Amsterdam and Its People", 1902. Also J. G. Wilson: "History of N. York" 1902, 4 vols. (vol. I, has facs. of autograph), "N.Y. Colonial Documents, etc. See Savage, "General Dict." III, etc. He should have a monograph work - on him as the early espouser of popular rights. - His antagonisms - and probably no less his principles - brought him into association and sympathy with the English. He had at least six children:

Cornelia - M (1) Jacob Loper and (2) Jacob Schillinger. - For desc'ts See General App'ce to T. V. Chambers' "Early Germans of N. J."

? ± (Cornelius) - a son - probably oldest drowned in shipwreck 27 - Sep. 1647.

(Is it possible that only then a d'r took the name Cornelia - after the father?)

Marian - b. abroad probably.

Magdaleen - possibly part of name of preceding.

Jacob - b. (Antwerp ± 1640)

Jacob - had several children: but Samuel and Abigail alone survive him and are mentioned in his will. (See Savage, "G. D." and Htf'd E'n"). The former - grad'd at Harvard, Minister at H't'n, and died unmarried. Letter married (1) Woodmancer? (2) Wm. Tilley, and (3) Chf. Jus'ce Sewall.

Had been m'd. No ch'n.

Marian. M. (Sic rel.) Mathys Hetfield (1) Purdy's) at N. Haven and came to Eliz'tn 1665/6.

Susanna - b. 1643
M. John Winans at N. H. 1664 - and removed to E'tn after birth of Susannah 1667.

Isaac -
M. Temperance Loveridge of Albany. One child
dr. Wm. L. Sr. survived. Joanna - b. 1682 - 3, and married

See N.J. Arch - XXIII.
Inventory 19 Feb. 1727/8
Admin'r. 25 Oct. 1732.
Acct'g. 20 Feb. 1748/9

Oral tradition that Conrad was a "tailor". May be confusion with John "Weaver", as Conrad was deemed "first comer". - Inventory shows him yeoman and possibly carpenter.

Three children are found in Conn. and N.Y. Two are noted in estate a/cs. as dead since father: Susannah and Jemima.

Also one living son - Wm. Evidently born just at after his father's death, when inventory was taken. He came of age then, in Feb. 1748/9. (but chooses guardian 1741).

Wm. has bro. James made his guardian 3 March 1740/1, at Stamford, Conn. Sister Joanna had m'd (Reynolds) 16 Feb. 1740/1. James is on tax list of Greenwich, Conn. 1736. (Nov. 21). The mother's people were in this or 22.
region (Palmers, Denhams).

so we have: -

James 1714/5

Joanna 1821/2

Wm. 1727/8

also Jonathan b. 15 July 1710 by tradition from a Conrad.

(No proff - Some poss. of a son to be f'r. of a Benj'n.?)

(And we can conjecture besides the earlier Susannah and later Jemima - who died (see Estate a/c - earlier than Jonathan - a Sarah - a Conrad - a John (possibly dying and then and also otherwise o'k. later a Jacob and a Mathias.)

The Adm'r was app'd after Jonathan came of age. Some (3) ch'n went to Conn. and New York; Daniel Love, Adm'r belonged there, and was perhaps connected by marriage.

Hannah Bruen was a woman of marked intellect and force of character. Desc't undoubtedly of Obadiah Bruen - most prom't of Newark's founders.

(3) Grumman)

Bethiah - I have imagined was a Lyon, but there is some evidence that she was a "Horton" (Unless this a copyist's error for "Foster")

Hannah Bruen b. 1775 - seems to have been a d'r of Timothy, b. 1710 - (Easily traced) who left no will

This accords with various trad's of relationships.
